

MORNING APPEAL

SATURDAY.....MARCH 2

A QUESTION OF FACT.

The Reese River Reveille turns a double back somersault over the Cheney bill which changed the boundary lines of Eureka county. It charges Mr. C. C. Wallace with trying to pass the bill and covers him with ink, mud, and blood.

The column of abuse published by the Reveille is all lost as the facts of the case are that Mr. Wallace was not lifting his finger for the bill. If the editor of the Reveille were to come to Carson occasionally during the session, he would keep himself better posted.

As the case stands now, he is as ignorant of affairs as if he lived in Russia.

The Lander delegation, a body of men pretty well qualified to judge of the matter, pronounces the Reveille's statements to be absolutely false.

Land Decisions.

W. D. Harlan, Land and Mining Attorney, at Washington, D. C., sends us the following decisions of the Land Department.

Acting Commissioner Anderson, in C. J. Miller's pre-emption claim held that the pre-emptor, Miller, allowed a small railroad company to locate its temporary terminus on his land, he acting as railroad agent, and as agent for a connecting stage line, also as telegraph operator, assistant postmaster and express agent. There are a church, school house and eating house on the land, erected by Miller's consent. The eating house proprietor Bowen, is also postmaster, while Miller is deputy postmaster. The pre-emption proof is returned for allowance of entry and payment.

Sewerage.

Business was never so dull in this city as since the small-pox was introduced here. Business men all complain of their losses, yet if a committee were to go round to raise money for better sewerage, it would meet with a cool reception. The money lost by the people of this city by reason of the small-pox scare, would give the town good sewerage.

The rotten condition of the sewers was the cause of the small-pox. We may learn a lesson by it, but the chances are that we will not.

—State Controller Hallock requests County Clerk Henderson to send him the original bill presented to and allowed by the Board of County Commissioners for expenses of the special election. As the Clerk has no authority to send the bills, which are a part of the records of the office, he could not comply with the Controller's request, but he sent duplicates of all the bills allowed by the Commissioners. The Act appropriating $15,000 to defray the expenses of the election only required the Chairman of the Board of Commissioners to certify the amount to the State Controller, and directed that official to draw his warrant for the amount, but the Controller goes further than the act, and requires the original bills for presentation to the State Board of Examiners. It is possible and very probable, says the Silver State, if the State Controller can find any excuse for not issuing warrants, the counties will have to pay the expenses of the election.—Independent.

—A bill has been introduced in the Senate, which makes a sort of Judicial Court out of the State Land office. The powers thus conferred are dangerous, and the bill should be carefully considered before passed.

—We are glad to note the Tribune has swung into line, and considers Mr. Coffin, a good Speaker of the House. It seemed to entertain different views before the Legislature met.

—The Douglas county ranchers at a meeting held on the 23rd., resolved unanimously to support Senate Bill 48 and Assembly Bill 60, irrigation bills.
